Setting up of regulatory authorities

4322. SHRIMATI SHOBHANA BHARTIA: Will the Minister of FINANCE be pleased to state:

(a) whether Government propose to set up regulatory authorities for Petroleum, Civil Aviation and Railways;

(b) whether regulation in banking, commodity futures market, capital market, insurance, telecommunications and power were in place and were reasonably well-established;

(c) whether all Ministries have agreed for this proposal;

(d) if so, by when a final decision for regulatory authorities are to be established in these sections; and

(e) to what extent this decision has proved helpful?

THE MINISTER OF STATE IN THE MINISTRY OF FINANCE (SHRI PAWAN KUMAR BANSAL): (a) to (d) Government has decided to set up Petroleum and Natural Gas Regulatory Board. The final decision to set up Airport Economic Regulatory Authority will be taken once the AERA Bill is introduced in the Parliament and Is passed by it. There was a proposal to set up a tariff regulatory authority for the Railways, but it was rejected by Ministry of Railways. Regulators in banking, commodity futures market, capital market, insurance, telecommunication and power are already in place and are reasonably well established.

(e) This decision has proved helpful to the extent of ensuring orderly functioning of various sectors and preventing the abuse of monopoly powers.
